

The Sights of Sulaymaniyah Escorted day trip of Sulaymaniyah - itinerary

A typical street scene in Sulaymaniyah, Iraqi Kurdistan

Introduction

Iraqi Kurdistan is a fascinating place of sheer beauty, warm and friendly people and a rich and challenging history. Although situated in the northern part of Iraq, it is in many ways a world apart. Largely unknown or traditionally avoided by Western tourists, we believe this region is an absolute gem in the making and that now is the time to visit before the crowds discover this hidden world.

About Us

An Australian / Kurdish joint venture, Kurdistan Adventures combines local knowledge with Western tour operations management. We pride ourselves on immersing our small groups of travelers in Iraqi Kurdistan culture with safety, security and professionalism.

The management team of Kurdistan Adventures is deeply passionate about Kurdistan and all are based in the Iraqi Kurdistan region. Our intimate local knowledge and connections within the region allow us to offer you the best possible tour experience with access to sights not always available to foreign companies.

We work closely with our suppliers, the majority of whom are local Kurdish based businesses. This not only allows us to keep our costs down (and thus passed on to you), but means that the money stays within the local communities we visit, interact and touch as part of our adventure.

Itinerary

Day 1 Sulaymaniyah

We begin our time together by enjoying tea in a local chaikhana (teahouse) or café, get lost shopping in the bazaar, see the many antiquities at the Slemani Museum, enjoy a picnic highlighting authentic home cooked Kurdish cuisine at Azmar Mountain (with million dinar views!) and understand the terrible legacy of Saddam Hussein at the Amna Suraka (Red Security) buildings.

Looking to the future, we then stroll back through Azadi Park and finally end the day in style at a local Kurdish bar and trying sheesha!

Includes lunch.
